24th April 2017

Mr Tom Sherrin
Chairman, Croydon Camera Club
2 Avenue

Dear Mr Sherrin

I am writing to thank you for inviting me to attend the Croydon Camera Club's Annual Exhibition in the Clocktower Café recently.

I was very impressed with the quality of the various exhibits on display and judging by the many complimentary comments from many people at the event, I believe that this year's Exhibition was even better.

The whole evening was very impressive and I would like to take this opportunity to convey my sincere congratulations to everyone involved in helping to make this year's Exhibition such a wonderful event and I wish you all continued success.

May I take this opportunity to thank you personally for looking after me so well throughout the evening.

Yours sincerely

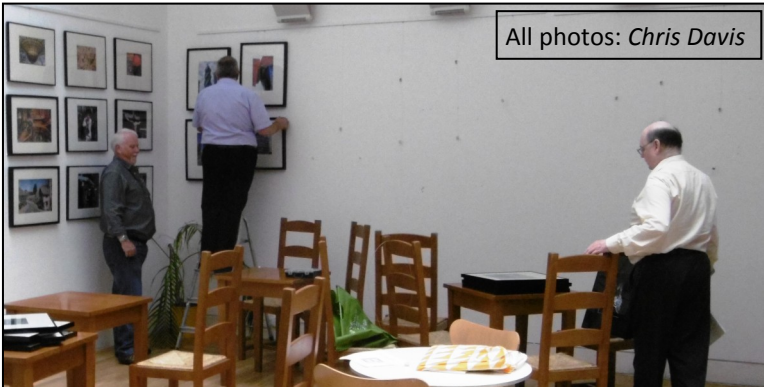

Councillor Wayne Trakas-Lawlor
Mayor of Croydon

SUNDAY 3rd April - Hanging Day.....

Many thanks to all the members who gave their time to help hang the exhibition.

Camera club display

Trakas-Lawlor and the Deputy Mayor Toni Letts at a well-attended reception at the Clocktower Café Gallery.

The exhibition - which is the work of Croydon Camera Club members - has 99 professionally framed images displayed on the walls as well as 99 digital images which are viewed continually on a large television.

Croydon Camera Club has a proud history.

And it is one of the oldest camera clubs in the UK having been founded in 1890.

Today Croydon Camera Club runs an interesting programme on most Wednesday evenings that includes talks by invited speakers and camera club members, internal photographic competitions and photographic outings.

Meetings are held on Wednesdays at 7.45 for a 8pm start at Shirley Methodist Church Hall, in Eldon Avenue, Shirley.

New members of all standards are always welcome and are encouraged to attend on a trial basis to see if the club is for them.

The exhibition is free to view until the end of April between 9.30am and 5.00pm at the Clocktower Café Gallery, 9 Katharine Street, Croydon.
